NORTHERN NEWS.

[Special Despatch to the Richmond "Enquirer."] FREDERICKSBURG, Jan. 30, 1863.

I have just received Northern papers of the 27th instant, from which I make up the following summary:

BURNSIDE RELIEVED—HOOKER IS CHIEF COMMANDER—FRANKLIN AND SUMNER ALSO RELIEVED.

The army of the Potomac has a new commander; Gen. Burnside turned over his authority on Monday evening to "fighting" Joe Hooker.

The "Herald" says Burnside was relieved at his own request. Sumner and Franklin have also been relieved. The Herald says they refused to fight under Hooker, because they did not have confidence in him.

Burnside, Hooker and Sumner proceeded to Washington on Monday evening as soon as relieved.

The following is Burnside's farewell to his troops:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC,
January 26, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 9.

By direction of the President of the United States the Commanding General this day transfers the command of the army to Major General Joseph Hooker. The short time he has controlled your movements has not been fruitful of victory; but it has again demonstrated an amount of courage, patience and endurance that, under more favorable circumstances, would have accomplished great results.

Continue to exercise those virtues: be true in your devotion to your country and the principles you have sworn to maintain; give to the brave and skillful General who has been so long identified with your organization, and who is now to command you, your full and cordial support, and you will deserve success. In taking an affectionate leave of the entire army, from which he separates with so much regret, he may be pardoned if he bids an especial farewell to his long tried associates of the Ninth Corps.

His prayers are that God may be with you, and grant you continued success until the rebellion is crushed.

By command of Major Gen. Burnside,
LAWIS RICHMOND, A. A. G.

NOW THE CHANGE IS RECEIVED.

The Herald has an article of a column's length on the change of commanders. It regrets that McClellan was not restored, but adds that his confidence and encouragement are due to Hooker, and that it gives it. It hardly supposes that an early advance can be had, as it will take time for Hooker to get matters straight, but calls for a forward movement. It says that three armies are to be dispatched if the rebellion is to be crushed. It believes that Bragg will receive his quietus at the hands of Rosecrans; whilst Vicksburg must fall, inasmuch as it is to be attacked by Grant, McClellan and Porter from above, aided by Banks and Farragut from below. If, then, Hooker, can take the "rebel" Capital, it believes all will be safe. In this same article, it says Greeley has declared that the war must end by the first of May, Union or no Union. It closes by saying that it is inevitable that doubts should exist at Washington of our (i. e. Northern) final success, and admonishes Lincoln that the next three months will settle, at all events, the success or ignominious failure of the Government in his hands.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says that the on the 1st, Burnside resigned because of difficulties with Hooker. Burnside, it continues, when he found he could not get his cannon across at Banks' Ford, wanted to cross and offer battle with infantry alone, but Hooker peremptorily refused.

THE NEW COMMANDER.

Hooker graduated at West Point in 1837. He was mid-camp to Gen. Hamer in the Mexican war, and was breveted Captain for gallant conduct at National Bridge, and Lieut. Colonel for gallant conduct at Chapultepec. He resigned in 1853 and went to California. He offered his services to Lincoln at the outbreak of the war.

THE NEW CAMPAIGN.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says, a few days of new organizations and new plans, and Gen. Hooker's campaign will open. It predicts that he will be the new Despatch of the modern Marston. It says each day is precious—each week should be made to tell on the grand result. We want Richmond, the control of the Mississippi, and other points which we will not name, before the hot June sun.

THE NEW PROGRAMME FOR CRUSHING THE REBEL.

The Herald gives us the new programme of the radicals, the following:

"The principle of concentration generally is to be carried out in all military arrangements. Heavy reinforcements are to be sent to Rosecrans. Vicksburg and Port Hudson are to be attacked by forces sufficient for their reduction. Wilmington, Charleston and Savannah are to be assailed in succession, and another effort is to be made to reduce the Rebel Capital."

All these objects accomplished by the first of May, it is expected the Rebels will be brought to terms.

This portion of the programme would be most encouraging, but for the doubts which the sequel involves. From that it is evident that its authors do not place much reliance in its success. Thus we learn that whilst the proposed plan of operations is being carried out, secret agents are to be sent by the Government to Europe, for the purpose of coming to an understanding with Louis Napoleon in the event of his failure.

The intention is that as soon as the French Emperor is to interfere in favor of peaceable separation between the North and the South, provided such separation be based on plan of general emancipation in both sections and proper adjustment of boundaries.

It is not believed that the South would consent, but that its refusal would do damage to its cause in Europe, that it would fail to secure further sympathy or assistance in that quarter.

MEDITATION.

The Herald editorially says it is well known that Napoleon has taken initiatory steps towards intervention in our affairs, and should our Government be backed by European Powers to Napoleon alone will the credit of joint action be accorded by Europe, and adds that it is believed the radicals will call on Napoleon to interfere.

NEW YORK.

The Legislature of New York has organized. Colburn, dem., has been elected Speaker of the House by the Republicans, he agreeing to vote for a Republican U. S. Senator. All the rest of the officers elected were Republicans.

The Herald's correspondent, writing from Albany, says that a difficulty between the State and General Government, is inevitable; that the National Government has not consulted Seymour in anything it has done; never having written to him, since his election, and points to the militia being called out by Wood as confirmatory of what it says. It remarks that the people are ripe for revolution and are not to be kept down by Jacobins, and asks imploringly, where are we drifting?

SEWARD'S DEPOSITION STILL DEMANDED.

The correspondent of the "Herald" writes from Washington that the radicals still press the President to remove Seward, and that on Saturday, a large number of them, with Wendell Phillips at their head, went forward and demanded of the President to oust his Premier.

NEW YORK CITY AND THE ADMINISTRATION.

The City Council of New York by a vote of 13 to 3, have passed resolutions denouncing the Administration, and charging Fitz John Porter's dismissal to partiality.

RELEASE OF DENING.

Denning, agent of Associated Press, who was arrested because he wanted to telegraph Burnside's address to the press, has been released. The "Herald" says he was arrested because of his friendship for McClellan.

PRESENT TO MRS. McCLELLAN.

McClellan's friends in New York city have presented his wife with a magnificent house and lot, with furniture complete.

WHAT ROSECRANS GOT AT MURFREESBORO.

Rosecrans claims that he took 3,500 prisoners, eight guns and four standards of colors at Murfreesboro.

YANKEE FINANCES.

The House of Representatives has passed a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to borrow $300,000,000 for the next fiscal year, and $500,000,000 for the next fiscal year, on 6 per cent. bonds payable after twenty years or coin. The Secretary is also authorized to issue $400,000,000 of three year treasury notes, bearing 6 per cent. per annum; but they are not to be legal tender notes. If required by the exigencies of public service the Secretary is also authorized to issue $300,000,000 of legal tender notes, similar to those now circulating.

NATIONAL GUARD OF 250,000 MEN.

A bill has been introduced in the Yankee Congress to organize a force of two hundred and fifty thousand men, raised pro rata in the several States, from the militia, to be two hundred regiments of twelve companies, the men to be between twenty-one and thirty-five, and to be called "National Guard." It will be subject to all orders from the President.

OFFICERS WITHOUT COMMANDS.

The following Yankee officers are now off duty: Major Generals McClellan, Fremont, Emel, McDowell, Fitz John Porter and Cassin M. Clay, besides Burdette, Sumner, and Franklin, and Brigadier Generals Harney, Robert Anderson, O. P. Stone, McCall, Blaker, Shields, Murry, T. T. Crittenden and nine others. In all twenty-six Generals without commands.

ARKANSAS POST PRISONERS.

4,720 prisoners, from this place, arrived at Cairo on the 21st. Gen. Churchill, the officer commanding at the time of surrender, was with them.

MICELANEOUS.

Col. R. C. Murphy, who surrendered Holly Springs, has been dismissed from the Yankee army.

Burnside and Staff have been allowed thirty days leave of absence.

CAMP ANECDOTES.

A correspondent of the Evans White and Observer, writes thus from Fredericksburg:

A young, stout, hale, hearty young man in a S. C. regiment, went to Gen. Lee a few days ago, for the purpose of getting a furlough, when the following amusing incident took place:

(Gen. Lee.) Sir, do you know the position of a soldier?

(Soldier.) (Saluting the General) I do, sir.

(Gen. Lee.) Assume the position of a soldier. I want to see if you can execute two of three orders as I give them.

(Soldier.) (Saluting himself, facing the General, putting his hands together.) I am in the position of a soldier now, sir.

(Gen. Lee.) (Viewing him closely and scrutinizing him.) Well, sir, you hold on awhile, and I will show you a sort of guardhouse.

The following amusing incident took place in the 5th Alabama regiment, I am told, with a fairly educated conceit and firm. Rhodes:

The General was riding along his brigade, and came up with the conceit, who had taken his gun in pieces for the purpose of cleaning and rubbing it.

(Gen. Rhodes.) "What are you doing, sir? What are you, anyhow?"

(Conceit.) "I am a sort of sentinel. What are you, anyhow?"

(Gen. Rhodes.) "I am a sort of General."

(Conceit.) "Well, General, if you will hold on, I will show you a sort of guardhouse."

The last we heard of the conceit, General Rhodes had him in the guard house at his headquarters, buckled and gagged.
